We have known Ed for the past eight years. He was a man of noble character who sincerely loved and cared for his family and friends. Ed had a most generous heart, and we will never forget his kindness to our daughter, Kellyn. He was highly respected, engaging in conversation, caring and supportive, and it was our honor to know him. May wonderful memories of Ed comfort those of us who grieve his passing. An amazing man . . . an amazing legacy! With Heartfelt Sympathy, Lawrence & Aletha Walter

Kellyn Walter posted:

Mr. Hukill welcomed me into his family with open arms despite me being a Falcons fan. He teased me every year about my choice in team and always tried to get me to switch to being a Saints fan. He was the most generous man and I will miss talking to him about football every weekend! I will miss him dearly.
