Joy Elizabeth "Libby D" Simmons

AUG 12, 1952 - FEB 2, 2026

Joy Elizabeth "Libby D" Simmons entered eternal rest on Monday, February 2, 2026, in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Libby was born on August 12, 1952, in Port Sulphur, Louisiana, to Evelie and Thelma Delahoussaye. She lived in Port Sulphur until August of 2005, when she married the love of her life, Jerry E. Simmons, and moved to Rockport, Texas. Libby and Jerry were married on June 17, 2005, and remained inseparable until her final breath.

Libby was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and a friend to all. One of her greatest joys was spending time with her grandchildren, whom she loved deeply. She was a strong woman of faith and family, and there was nothing she would not sacrifice for her only son, whom she loved more than life itself.

Known by friends and family as the life of the party, Libby had a way of lighting up every room she entered. Her home was always open, especially during the holidays, which she loved to decorate. She never met a stranger, striking up conversations wherever she went and somehow knowing someone everywhere she traveled.

Libby was preceded in death by her parents, Evelie J. Delahoussaye and Thelma Sonnier Delahoussaye; her siblings, Michel Delahoussaye and James "Tracy" Delahoussaye; her grandson, Charleston Delahoussaye; and her brother-in-law, Albert Richard.

She is survived by her loving husband, Jerry E. Simmons; her son, Dustin J. Delahoussaye (Shannon); her stepson, Jeremy P. Simmons (Marly); her stepdaughter, Kara J. Simmons (Travis); her sisters, Brenda Euper (Teddy), Patricia Richard, and Vicky Everage; her sister-in-law, Thecla Delahoussaye; and her cherished grandchildren, Easton, Caroline, Vivienne, Kaitlyn, Emily, Parish, and Adeline. She is also survived by a large extended family of nieces, nephews, and cousins who adored her.

It is with such sorrow to hear of Libby's passing. She was always filled with laughter and easy to talk to as our neighbor for so many years. I was blessed to have met her and enjoyed her delightful sweets, especially her red velvet cake her family so loved. Rest in peace Libby, until we meet again. Dennis & Julie Howard

We're so sorry to hear of Libby's passing! We were talking about her a couple weeks ago and asked Brenda about her at our class reunion a few months ago. Libby use to baby sit my children many years back in Port Sulphur. She was a wonderful person, had a great personality and great with my children, always smiling. She will be sadly missed. So sorry we can't attend the services, wish we could change our appointment, but know our thoughts and prayers are with the Family. Sincere Sympathy, Paula & Jimmy Cappiello Port Sulphur, La.

All of my favorite memories with Aunt "my Libby" are from when I was a child. I would call her Aunt "my Libby" and would get upset when my cousins or brothers would call her "my Libby" too. She had this chicken alarm clock that would sing "hey baby wake up and come and dance with me" and I would play that over and over. When I'd sleep over at her house, I remember putting her bra over my head to wear it as a hat. She would put everything in there, money, keys, her inhaler. She was always fun and very protective. I remember riding in a Mardi Gras parade one year and someone threw a bead back at my brother who was maybe 5 at the time and hit him in the face. That was it. She had us sit down to eat sandwiches and she threw all our trash off the float at the people who threw a bead at my brother. I remember going on Sam's runs and we "shopped til we dropped". I would be so excited to try all the samples and feel like we bought the whole store. She had George Strait's greatest hits collection. It was 3 CDs that we would listen to on our way to "shop til we dropped." My memories aren't anything fancy or out of the ordinary. Just normal living but somehow she made the ordinary feel extraordinary. - Brooke (Toolie) Casey
