Lance Larose

JUN 26, 1952 - MAR 27, 2026

Lance Larose, at the age of 73, passed away on Friday, March 27, 2026. He was born on June 26, 1952, in New Orleans, Louisiana.

He is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Maureen Fitzpatrick Larose; his children, Katharine Larose (Marty Yoo) and Alicia Hampton (Kurt Hampton); grandchildren, Joseph and Benjamin Hampton; and siblings, Deborah Larose Farge (Wally Farge) and Gisele Larose (Curt Corbi). He is also survived by a host of nieces and nephews and wonderful lifelong friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Audrey Garner Larose and Alvin Larose.

Lance proudly graduated as part of Brother Martin's first graduating class in 1970. He spent most of his career in the construction industry. A lifelong New Orleanian through and through, Lance's relationship with the Saints was nothing short of passionate. When the Saints were up, he was up. When you couple a Saints victory with the legendary Sunday Larose family spaghetti and meatballs dinner, you could pretty much guarantee he'd be walking on air all week. Family was the heartbeat of Lance's world. Nothing brought him more joy than spending time with his two grandsons, who were the light of his life. Lance will forever be smiling down upon us, enjoying endless chicken wings from Lakeview Harbor and yelling at the NFL refs from the best seat in the house.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Lance may be made to The National Multiple Sclerosis Society, <https://donate.nationalmssociety.org/>

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at E.J. Fielding Funeral

Lance and I attended LSU together in 1971-1972, along with his dear friend and my now wonderful brother-in-law, Ken Gootee. Those 2 got me through that year, and it was some crazy fun as they navigated fraternity pledgship, and the rigors of classes. Seeing Lance over the past 50 years whenever I was back in NO was always so pleasant and I've felt a fondness for him and his beautiful wife, Maureen. My prayer is for God to wrap his loving arms around her and give her peace. + Lance was one of the good guys.-Terry (Thomas) Bullard

Gerry Davis posted:

It is an honor to speak about a man who was not only a mentor but a steady anchor in an ever-shifting world. Since he hired me back in 1976, we navigated three different companies and two decades of professional life together. He was a man of firm, perhaps inflexible, convictions—but that rigidity was forged in the rarest of metals: absolute honesty, unwavering fidelity, and a principled conservatism. For over 50 years, Maureen was his heartbeat. His pride in Alicia, Kurt, Ben Joe, Kate and Marty manifested in a smile each time he spoke of them. He lived his values through his loyalty to his family and his word. While we mourn his absence, we can find peace in the destination he has now reached. As Richard Jefferies once wrote: "It is eternity now. I am in the midst of it. It is about me in the sunshine; I am in it as the butterfly in the light-laden air. Nothing has to come; it is now. Now is eternity; now is the immortal life." He has stepped out of the constraints of time and fully into that light. He leaves us with the legacy of a life well-lived, a marriage admired by all, and a handshake that meant more than any legal contract. Gerry (Tibo) Davis
