

Ann Hamilton Earhart

September 3, 1946 - November 13, 2018

Ann Hamilton Earhart, age 72, died at home on November 13th, 2018.

She was born in Gastonia, NC to Horace Emerson Hamilton and Harvison Smith Hamilton.

Ann, the “fun one,” is survived by her children, Frederick Adam Earhart Jr., and Gretchen Earhart Fischer (Andrew); and siblings – not the “fun ones” – Richard Gwyn Hamilton (Nadene), Elise “Weese” Hamilton Petersen, and Jane Hamilton Voorhies. She was an active grandmother to Claire, Katie, and Ava, and will be remembered for her quick wit, perfect comedic timing, and fun-loving nature by other members of her fan club and extended family.

The esteemed Captain of the Northshore Ladies’ Sip and Dip Swim Team, Ann is best remembered for hunting down the best shoes in her size in every color, cooking a delicious bowl of grits and grillades, and expertly miming twirling a flaming baton to the LSU pregame.

She loved the beach, Sonic, scotch, Jeopardy, vehemently insisting she was not the one who drew on the walls of her childhood home in 1956, and spending time with her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Fred Earhart.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend memorial services at 11am on Friday, November 23, 2018 at the Christ Episcopal Church Chapel, 120 S. New Hampshire St. Covington, LA 70433. Visitation at the church Parish Hall on Friday will begin at 10am.

“ Ann, the best aunt I ever had! Ann was a master of several lesser known dialects and I was lucky enough to have learned them all from her. Ann shared her never ending wit, wisdom and wise cracks brightening the lives of all those she encountered. I will miss my aunt dearly and hold her memory with me forever. I wish everyone grieving her loss peace blessings and comfort in the knowledge that Ann lived a life filled with love and laughter.

“ Weezie and Jane,

I am so sorry for your loss. I thought all of you were the fun ones. Ann will be sorely missed. So sad that she had to suffer but now she is with Fred. I will be thinking about you on Friday.

“ “Ann and Ann”...we sat together in vocal music at Fortier HS and laughed as much as we sang. She truly was the funny one! I have thought of her over the years and wondered how she was...from the words written about this crazy, funny blonde girl, I see that she hadn't changed, only blossomed. I wish we could have known each other as grownups...not adults...grownup teenage girls.

Rest easy, my sweet friend Ann, much love from the other Ann.

“ Longtime member of the Fan Club. Ann was one of a kind and I am thankful that I got hang out with such a cool mom growing up. I'm especially thankful of my last visit with her and Gretchen. She stayed true to form up until the very end. Your comedic genius will be greatly missed but I'm sure you and Fred are cutting up in Heaven.

Love,
