“ We are so sorry for your loss. I met Charles when I met Joan at Leo's house in Diamondhead. Over the past four years with our family reunions I saw Charles more often. In the last year Charles would call me about once a month to check on Joe's health. I really appreciated that concern. He will be missed.

“ I'm was deeply sorry to hear about Charles. I will miss my dear cousin, our frequent discussions, his analytical mind, caring kind manner, and his family connectedness. I hope the following quote will bring you peace:

Those we love don't go away, they walk beside us everyday, unseen, unheard but always near, still loved, still missed, and held so dear.

“ So sorry to hear about Charles. He was a faithful member of our church choir, making every practice, singing for any special Mass, and routinely singing at two Masses every weekend. We will certainly miss him. He always had a cheerful attitude, except for once that I remember. We had both gotten to the church door at the same time for practice. I held the door for him, and he was indignant, saying that he wasn't that bad off that a lady had to hold the door for him! So I told him that it was a gift; then he was all right with it.
May the angels welcome him into their heavenly choir.

“ Prayer for Charles: O Loving God through the heavenly intercession of St. Pio, welcome Charles into the company of the Saints, where tears are no more, all suffering and pain are ended and there is great joy, abundant life and peaceful rest in Your loving presence. Amen.
