“ Uncle Eippy was a very special person. He was kind, generous, compassionate, funny, forgiving & very spiritual. He loved Jesus, his family, friends & truly he loved & respected all people. He said we are all brothers & sisters in Christ. He worked hard & played harder. He wasn't afraid to sing too loud or dance when no one else was dancing. I'll miss that. He made people smile & made them feel welcomed & he made EVERYONE feel important. He lived life to the fullest & on his own terms. He didn't judge others & always offered a helping hand. He was one of a kind that's for sure.

My uncle was brave & honest & grateful. His love was pure & unconditional. He always said we are just passing through this life & that this was just the journey not the destination. He said the happiest day is when you meet Jesus face to face. My heart is broken for everyone he leaves behind. I will miss him so much. BUT I know he is basking in God's eternal light & life. Til we meet again, I love u Uncle Ep & you are in my heart forever.

“ Want to share a cute story about uncle Eppie on Sunday .. me and maris went into the room with him early that day, then prayed , then about an hour later my aunt pearl got there so we went back into the room with him he was awake again and she said ok epp we gonna pray with ang is gonna lead and so we start holding hands and aunt pearl next to him on one end and he looks up at her and said who died ? And I chuckled because I heard him and aunt pearl didn't so she said What? And he said it louder and who's dieing ( this time ) with a funny lil smile on his face, we all broke into laughter and I said ok so it's time to sing .. so we sang amazing grace and Alleluia they said that is one of his favorite songs and then baby Fe lead us in the Queen song .. his favorite too We are the champions.. then they hooked up the alexia in the room . He loved music , and I'll always remember how he made a joke and had us laughing that's Eppie he was like that and trust me I still have smile on my face because he lighten it up for us .. but that exactly what heaven is that lighten it up feeling .. sing with the angels uncle Eppie ..you know we love you and God does too
