“ I will miss my friend, Myra. She has been a true friend since fourth grade at Sacred Heart Grade and High School. I was so honored to be her maid-of-honor, Steven's godmother, and a lector at your Dad's Services. Your Mom was a gift throughout my life. She will remain forever in my heart. Thank you for being wonderful children to her. She is so proud of all of you.

I am having five Masses offered at my parish church, St Andrew the Apostle, in Amelia, LA for Myra. My love to all of you.

“ Myra was my only girl cousin on the Packard side of our family. She was more like the big sister I admired from the days I watched Leo come pick her up on a date to go jitter-bugging to the visits to our last surviving 99 yr old Aunt Rose. We celebrated most of our November 9th & 10th birthdays together. More recently, we had a wonderful weekend visit with her brother, Bub, and his family in Lafayette and shared a lifetime of family memories. Myra always could bring the sunshine with her positive spin on things. We shared lots of laughter that weekend. Last February we got together in Covington with our cousin Bill Kuhn and his family for what would be our last gathering before COVID restrictions set in. We were all so glad we had a chance to do that. Myra loved going for rides whenever Kevin and I were in town. It didn't matter where to or how long we kept her out. Myra was always ready for fun even at a moment's notice. She loved her children and her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was very proud of how kind and attentive they were of her. She felt so loved by all of them. Maybe Myra's greatest gift was that she made us all feel loved and safe and cared for. We will miss her sweet smile and kind words forever.

“ I remember Myra as being sweet and smart. We were classmates beginning in the 5th grade, until our 1957 graduation from Sacred Heart of Jesus in New Orleans.

I did not see Myra again for many many years. I was living in Covington and working at Lakeview Regional Hospital. One day, I went into Medical Records Dept. to get a chart, and there was Myra working in the dept. We both recognized each other and decided to get together. Myra became part of the "hand and foot" card group that I was in.

After the devastating hit of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, I was extremely worried when another storm was heading towards my home. I have many large Pine trees on property, and knowing that I lived alone with 2 dogs, Myra called and insisted I come stay with her for the storm. So my 2 dogs and I went to Myras house and stayed with her 2 granddaughters, her son and her daughter, Lisa. And cant forget about Myras dog Max. Everyone was so kind and courteous that my dogs and I felt right at home.

I will never forget Myra's kindness and generosity.
A very special lady, who was very kind and loving and I will miss her greatly.

“ Myra was a very sweet and welcoming person. I joined a group in the neighborhood and became fast friends with Myra. She had many health problems but always a smile. He friend Paul was always worried about her. She felt every-time she spoke to you she asked about your family. My husband felt that Myra was his friend as well as mine. We spent several nights at the hospital emergency room with Myra. No matter how bad she felt she always smiled.

I will miss her as a good friend or family.

God Bless and protect her.

Lisa you have earned your place in heaven. Thank you for all you did for her.

“ I worked with Myra at EJGH in the Medical Records Dept in the mid 80's. Being right out of high school, it was my first "real" job. Myra took me under her wing and trained me with patience, kindness and friendship. She always had stories to tell about her husband and her children. She was so proud of them. May her family find comfort in knowing there is a guardian angel now watching over them. God Bless all of you.

“ Myra was such a good friend for so many years. Lisa, Michele and Steve - your mom was one of the sweetest and loving people I know. Remembering all the good times and get-togethers we had - especially in Bay St. Louis. You all now have your own guardian angel in Heaven.

“ Love and the best memories of our entire lives growing up together in this most special of families...the endless games of Scrabble, Monopoly and Michigan Rummy, the special gift of Favre/Picou BBQ secrets, fireworks for every holiday, seeing you guys when you'd visit no matter where in the world we were living, and the smiles through all of it. Love to all dear Cousins, and especially love to you Aunt Myra for all the happiness you brought through thick and thin.
