“ We were saddened to learn of Paul's passing so soon after his wife's. We visited with Paul at the Mandeville Trailhead Market on Saturdays for the past few years, and always looked forward to seeing his new creations through his wonderful wood turning. We were fascinated by the different woods he used and the way he worked them, and love the bowls we acquired from him, which we use. They were our favorite wedding gifts, and recipients were so pleased with them. He was always "up" and enjoyed talking about the work that he did and the different woods and we looked forward to seeing him when we went to the trailhead. He was a superb craftsman and we miss seeing him, and are sorry we won't be able to obtain a Paul Robin Bow for the next wedding gift-but we treasure those we have and think of him fondly when we enjoy them.
With our heartfelt sympathy.
