

Reginald Joseph Fielding

November 19, 1971 - December 21, 2020

Covington native Reginald “Reggie” Joseph Fielding unexpectedly passed at his home on December 21st, 2020. Reggie leaves behind the three loves of his life, his wife Amy Orcutt Fielding and daughters Margaret “Macee” Cecelia Fielding and Elinor “Elie” James Fielding. Born Friday, November 19th, 1971, Reggie was the beloved son of Edward “Eddie” J. Fielding, III and Rebecca “Becky” Beall Fielding and the brother of Robert “Robby” Edward and Benjamin “Benjie” Beall (Annette). Nephew of Kathy Fielding Panter Smith, Pam Fielding Voelkel (Norman), Terri Fielding Murphy (Donald), Patti Fielding Nicaud (Guido), and Donald Beall. He is the son-in-law of Allen and Jean Orcutt and loving uncle of Emily, Caroline and Brooke Fielding.

Reggie was a person with many interests, natural gifts, and eclectic talents. Wood working and sculpting metal became a favorite pastime along with creating hand-carved wooden spoons, which are proudly displayed at his home. Always up for a challenge, Reggie took Amy’s Pinterest visions to a whole new level building intricate decorations and crafts especially for the apples of his eye, Macee and Elie. Reggie loved nature and embraced the culture and beauty of South Louisiana. He could be found exploring, fishing, riding horses, gardening, building or creating art, and reminiscing over the treasures he held dear. Reggie had a wonderful sense of humor, loved telling a long-winded Boudreaux joke, and would often be sporting a driving cap by day and a headlamp by night.

For over 20 years, Reggie shared his genuine compassion and love for others through serving families during their darkest times as a funeral director, often going above and beyond to help ease their grief and pain. He served others with kindness and without judgment. Reggie’s heart was as big as his smile, and he gave both away easily to those he knew even briefly, but especially to those he loved.

He will be deeply missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend graveside services at Pinecrest Memorial Gardens Mausoleum, 2280 W 21st Ave, Covington, LA 70433 on Tuesday, December 29, 2020 at 2:00 PM with visitation from 1:00 until service time. Interment will follow the services. Parking for the funeral will be available at E.J. Fielding Funeral Home. For those unable to attend in person, the service will be livestreamed at <https://youtu.be/SCNPoV6t5uU> beginning at 1:45 PM.

With COVID-19 restrictions, social distancing and face mask are required to attend services.

The Fielding family invites you to share thoughts, fond memories, and condolences online at E. J. Fielding Funeral Home Guest Book at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

“ Jeannie and I send our deepest condolences to Reggie's family. Reggie was one of the good guys in school. Always a smile, never an unkind word. Jeannie fondly remembers him from Northlake Christian, as I do from CHS. He was a hero on the football field, and a gentleman the rest of the time. Prayers for your family, and may he be at peace with the Lord.

“ Amy, Macee, and Elie,

So sorry for your loss, we will keep Reggie in our thoughts and prayers. May he rest in peace.

While I didn't know Reggie well, we met on multiple occasions and family funerals. He was always caring and provided comfort. He was also family, a cousin of both my wife Stephanie and I.

“ Reggie was and remains our families angel. He walked us through some of our darkest days when we buried our 13 year old son Spencer after a horrendous battle with cancer. In his very humble yet nurturing way, he was a tremendous blessing. He promised us that Spencer would always live in our hearts. Reggie was so amazing that most thought he was a close relative of our family with the care he gave us. I then had the pleasure of teaching Ellie and becoming sweet friends with Maci. I always loved seeing Amy and Reggie at school because when they spoke of their girls, their entire faces smiled, especially Reggie’s eyes. There is no doubt that there were MANY, including our Spencer, that met and welcomed Reggie at the Gates of Heaven.

Amy, Maci, Ellie, and family, our hearts are broken for you. We will keep our prayers for peace ongoing. And always remember, your husband, father, son, etc. once said, “He will live in your hearts until you are together again.”

“ I have been praying for the entire Fielding family. I have many memories of Reggie: as a young boy in my classroom; running across the playground at Northlake with Charles; at our kitchen table enjoying some of Carroll's cooking; as an adult who served our family when we had to say goodbye to our loved ones; his visits to play golf with Charles in Lake Charles; and our conversation in the grocery store a few months ago when he introduced me to his daughter.

I was actually looking through an old Northlake yearbook yesterday and on the page for the 7th Grade class were the pictures of Charles and Reggie side by side. When observing the pictures, I remembered that someone (I think it was Dave Diamond) said they were like salt and pepper (one fair with light hair--one tan with dark hair) but always together.

Know that Carroll and I will continue to pray for all of you.

“ I remember Reggie as a little red headed bundle of energy as a kid. Bryan, our son was another another red head dynamite, so they got along really well. As a little boy Bryan loved Reggie and was always looking to play with him when we got together at Aunt Kat and Uncle E.J.'s house. Reggie was often Bryan's partner in games their Easter celebrations. Later Bryan was Reggie's fraternity brother at USM. As an adult Reggie was so friendly and kind. He helped us plan both Daddy's and Mama's funeral. This was an especially difficult time for me because they died 10 weeks apart. Reg had a gift with people! I shall always remember him fondly. Although the Fielding grand children are many, Reggie's absence will be noticed. I pray that God will wrap him in his loving arms along with Aunt Kat and Uncle E.J. He will be in good company.

When he spoke to you, you knew that you had his undivided attention. He made you feel valued. Whenever I saw him at the funeral home interacting with family and friends of the deceased, he was so compassionate and tenderhearted toward them, often crying with them. I will miss seeing Reggie. Now, every time I play ball with the kids I think of that important lesson from Reggie. I have even passed on his wisdom to my oldest child who grins with pride every time she successfully catches the ball! I know that's a silly memory but it sticks with me and makes me smile. I also have fond memories of Reggie as a funeral director. He radiated with compassion and comfort and I am very thankful for the peace he gave me and my family during the losses of loved ones. When I first started teaching at Covington High, Reggie was a student there. Although I never had the pleasure of teaching him, Reggie was always polite, respectful, kind and compassionate with a ready smile each time we met. Reggie never changed in the intervening years. I am so grateful that Reggie was there for me and my family when first, my father, Carlos, in 2009, and then my mother, Elaine, in 2015 passed. “ I had the honor of teaching Reggie at CHS, and our paths crossed again, almost 4 years ago when my mom passed away on New Years Eve. I was overwhelmed by his kind heart as he handled such a difficult situation with so much grace and compassion. Reggie invited my sister and me to a Bible Study, and he was thrilled when we showed up, week after week, even when he had to miss. My heart breaks knowing he left so abruptly, leaving such a beautiful family behind to live without his amazing heart and soul. I pray for the whole family and slew of friends whose lives Reggie touched so deeply! See you on the other side, my brother in Christ, my friend. “ Dear Becky, Eddie, Robbie, and Benjy,

It has been a few days since I heard about Reggie's race in this world being over. My mind naturally runs back to when our journeys intersected. My two little girls and I moved across the street from y'all. Your home was full of love and laughter, with three cute little boys running in and out!

A few years later, it was my privilege to get to know those bigger boys as a teacher at NCS. Focusing in on Reggie, I remember his quick smile, willingness to serve, and more than all, his kind heart, qualities that marked his relationships throughout his life and that I observed every time I had the opportunity to see Him!

Many miles have passed from those days to this, each of us running the race set before us by our good and faithful Father God. Reggie kept running his to the very end, and your journeys have now taken on the heaviness of his loss. We love you and grieve with you and trust together that the Lord Himself will comfort and carry your whole family.

“ Your Dad was one of the most compassionate people I have ever met. He left an impact of kindness and love on too many people to count. I pray for you and your family to heal through the love of Jesus, who your Dad loved very much. May the Holy Spirit fill in those spaces left vacant from your Dad's entry into heaven.

“ Ellie, when our dad passed away your dad played a big part in making us feel better. He was a real light in our lives when we needed someone who was compassionate and caring. We will forever be grateful. My mom and dad had five daughters and I think my mom wanted to adopt your dad. He meant a lot to our family and we will miss him.

“ This truly breaks my heart. I met Reggie 4 years ago when we made the arrangements for my mother’s service. His compassion for my family during this devastating time was beyond what I’d ever imagine. He spoke to us so gentle. He guided us with such kindness. I remember asking Reggie “How do you do this?” “I don’t think I could handle this every day!!” Reggie told me, “it gives me an opportunity to go home and pray for families with my daughters.” I thought to myself what a kind, compassionate man. His family is truly blessed to have him in their lives. . Reggie will definitely made a difference in this world. He will definitely be missed. Praying for your family Reggie....
