“ I had the honor of knowing Mr. Tim through his son, Andrew, for about 14 years now. I was around 8 when I met Mr. Tim and I was able to grow up watching him being the absolute best father to his kids, man of God, and husband to Mrs. Shawn. He's every bit a man that a kid should want to grow up and become. I love Mr. Tim and his family and am praying for them as they continue navigating through this journey.

“ It is still hard to believe that Tim has made the journey home to his heavenly family. When I think of words to describe Tim generous, caring, great soul, FAMILY is the word that resonates the loudest. His blood family was his life but his soul was so kind and loving he also was a “father” to three foreign exchange girls. He was such a great example of a loving man to his mother, the love of his life - his true half, Shawn and his sons. His actions made all who were aware of them in awe of his caring supportive nature. He was truly a admirable gentleman which today is so rare ... it sounds weird to put it into words. I am heartbroken for his family and saddened that his soul will not serve as an example of what it means to be loving humble caring Man.
I was blessed to have his wife in my life and thus part the of Tim as their commitment to each other truly made them one unit. Family
Blessed and sending my love to his entire earth family.

“ hi tim:) I know it'll never be the same without you here with us. That's something we'll all have to adjust to. The pain of losing you will never go away, I know. But knowing you was amazing. I never got the chance to thank you for everything you've done for me and my mama. You took us in and gave us a roof over our heads. A beautiful and kind human being. I've walked up to the garage and hoped and expected you to be there, working on a project. I'm in disbelief you're gone. I would have loved to make more memories with you. I can almost hear you cracking jokes now. I promise you'll never be forgotten. You're too hard to forget. Thank you for being you. You lived a wonderful life. We'll all look out for eachother.

“ I was fortunate to have Tim as a brother. We shared many experiences and memories over the years. Tim was a wonderful husband, father, brother, and friend to so many people.
Seeing how Tim impacted so many lives is truly amazing. Always willing to help anyone in anyway he could.
Tim will be missed by so many but also remembered by so many for his selflessness, kindness and genuine love for others. May we all keep some of those qualities that he taught us with us everyday.
Love ya Brother

“ I had the great pleasure of working with Tim at AT&T over the past couple of years. He was gracious, helpful and kind from the first moment we met. He went above and beyond to welcome me into his business and always made sure I was included and had a seat at the table. Tim was always looking for ways to lift others up to success. In his final days at AT&T, he expressed how excited he was to be retiring to enjoy time with his family and doing the things that brought him joy. I am so very sorry for your loss and will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ There are no words for the loss of Tim. Tim was such a special person. I feel blessed in having him as a friend for over twenty years. He was one of my best friends and I always said, “He was a brother to me.” He and Shawn have been there in many ways and welcomed my kids and me into their family so easily. Always made sure I felt I was a part of them. Always making sure my kids and I were doing well. He always went beyond to help without me having to ask. Andrew, Jessica and myself, will forever miss him dearly. My heart is with all the Trammell Family and am very sorry for your sorrow.

With all my Love, Janeth.

“ I was very fortunate to have Tim as my Uncle. Not only was he an amazing member of the family, but an even special person. Many of my favorite memories when I was younger were my adventures with him. I can still vividly remember our trips to the circus and spending time at his house when I was out of school. Spending Christmas Eve with you, Shawn, Andrew, and Justin at Me Ma and Paw Paw's were always a special time and I can still see you firing up the blender in Me Ma's kitchen. As I got older I would always look forward to our conversations about sports and Disney. It's been warming getting to see impact you've had on others. Although I'd take many more memories, I am super grateful for all the ones we got to make. I've always looked upon them fondly, but will cherish them even more now. Thanks for being a shining light for myself and others! Love Ya, Uncle Tim!

“ The memories are endless with my dad. From cooking burgers together, long talks about anything and everything, our family dinners and game nights to singing Christmas songs in the car with him when he was showing me his new car, there was never a dull moment. He always made everyone smile and laugh and just wanted everyone to have a good time. Since I was gone for 8 months, I didn't get to spend that time with him in person but I cherished the daily phone call around his lunch break everyday. One of my fondest memories of recent was FaceTiming and watching the saints game together. Dad you never failed to make me smile and feel better and you were always there for me and taught me everything that I need to know, and I thank you for being the best possible father. Just know I have always been and always will be beyond proud of you for everything you have accomplished in your life and the work and effort you put into Moms, mine, And Justins lives. I can't wait to see you again, but I know you are in a much better place. I love you forever, and you will never be forgotten.

“ So sorry for your loss. I worked with Tim at Marie's Catering when I was just a teenager and he was the nicest person. Little did I know that 30 years later I'd be working next to his son in the military. You must have been one hell of a dad because Andrew is one of the best soldiers I know . Your dedication to your family has definitely paid off. My prayers and condolences to you and your family.

“ So many beautiful memories shared with Tim and family. From wonderful beach vacations, cruises, a girls NYC trip which he helped plan (Tim loved to plan), to hamburgers on the grill, family dinners at home, and time spent by the pool where Tim always made sure we had whatever we wanted to drink- Tim was one amazing man. A genuinely kind soul, a helpful friend, a loving husband to Shawn, and the most caring father to Andrew and Justin, and an incredible host dad to their 3 exchange students- Val, Giulia, and Cammie. I was lucky enough to witness it all. Our boys met as friends some 10ish years ago. Through their friendship, I gained friendship in Shawn and Tim. A friendship that turned into family. I guess it was all in His plans for our boys to meet. I am so grateful for God's will. Words cannot express just how much Tim meant to Skyler and I. Tim's absence on earth is certainly felt, but memories live on and he will forever remain in our hearts. We love you Tim. See you on the other side my dear friend.
