

William Dewey Sr

January 30, 1935 - April 28, 2020

William Raymond Dewey, Sr. of Covington passed away peacefully following a long courageous battle with cancer on Tuesday, April 28, 2020.

He was born on January 30, 1935, in Thibodaux, La., to Louis Felix and Gertrude Hymel Dewey.

William joined the United States Navy on May 7, 1952, and served in the Korean Conflict. He received an honorable discharge on January, 10, 1956. After leaving the Navy, he had a career in automotive parts as a salesman for over 35 years at Garrard Chevrolet.

William is survived by his beloved wife of 65 years Patricia Warner Dewey and their son William Raymond Dewey, Jr. (Julie) of Covington, and his grandson Jason Michael Dewey (Jennifer). He is also survived by his great grandson Connor Dewey and great granddaughter Grace Dewey.

William is preceded in death by his parents: Louis Felix Dewey and Gertrude Hymel Barrios (Lawrence), his brother Sidney Louis Dewey and sister Freddia Barrilleaux.

Due to our country's unfortunate state of affairs with the COVID 19, committal services for William at Restlawn Cemetery, Avondale, Louisiana are private.

The Dewey family invites you to share thoughts, fond memories, and condolences online at E. J. Fielding Funeral Home Guest Book at www.ejfieldingfh.com.

“ So many memories of Uncle Willie... Too many to list. He was like a father to our family. Always there when we needed him and always there with an open ear and a shoulder to lean on. He will be missed immensely and he will live in our hearts and minds always.

“ I met Mr. Dewey while visiting his son Bill a few years ago. I was there late while working from out of town. Bill called his Dad to come over. Although late in the evening Mr. Dewey arrived within minutes and we all had a good visit. Mr. Dewey struck me as a very fine man and very proud of his son. I know Bill will miss him greatly.

My heartfelt condolences Bill....Rick Ashby
